The Book Depot is Still Available Now!

Many of our groups have not been able to return to our physical locations, and thus access to each group's supply of literature. Also, during this COVID period many of our volunteers are unable to come to the AIS office. Still, CAL is available and in most cases is easily delivered to you, with no unnecessary physical contact required. Please contact Rebecca at (585)472-6393. Leave a message or text regarding your needs. In addition, you can email me at bookdepot@aisrochester.org. If you need to come to the AIS office to examine our CAL supply, I will meet you there. We cannot take credit cards for literature at this time, but you

WEBSITE COMMITTEE Job Description

Greater Rochester Area AIS Service Center SEPTEMBER 2020

Outreach update

The outreach committee will meet monthly starting 9/16. Our group has done face to face (with distancing) with one group this summer. We are willing to visit electronically and in person (with distancing) to spread the word. If individuals/counselors need literature to hand out to customers or clients, please contact AIS Rochester, 585-288-0540. We are willing to do "hands free" delivery and packaging if individual literature is requested.
